

Jeremiah 40-43

January 11, 2017

The captain of the guard (v 2) sees clearly what is happening to the Israelites yet the Israelites themselves don't recognize the same truth. In what ways do we see this same reality today?

Who is worse off...The Israelite who claims to follow God yet is constantly disobedient or the Babylonian who doesn't profess allegiance to God and is obedient to God?

Jeremiah is tasked with hearing from the Lord for the people. How do you seek to hear from the Lord? What is the longest you have waited?

The Israelites didn't see the word from God Jeremiah had as good. How do we differentiate between a good (favorable) word from God or a bad (unfavorable) word from God?

What is the difference between asking God for approval and asking God for guidance?

In whom or what have we placed our trust other than God? Why? Where is your safety?
